

Dungeness River Audubon Center

In partnership with the Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe, Olympic Peninsula Audubon Society, and National Audubon Society

P.O. Box 2450, Sequim, WA 98382 360-681-4076 rivercenter@olympus.net

Date: _____

Dear _____ ,

Thank you for the generous donation of $_____ that you made for the Spring Fling fundraiser sponsored by the Dungeness River Audubon Center. Your donation will help continue and enhance the River Center's educational programs and help maintain Railroad Bridge Park.

The River Center's educational programs reach thousands of youngsters and adults in our area. In 2008, the River Center welcomed 21,000 visitors and hosted or sponsored more than 600 events. Thousands more of us used Railroad Bridge Park. Many walked or biked along the Olympic Discovery Trail. Others played and fished in the Dungeness, watched salmon and birds from the historic bridge, explored nature trails, picnicked, and just enjoyed this beautiful park.

The Dungeness River Audubon Center is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization, so of course all the money you donated is tax deductible. The tax ID for the River Center is EIN 91-1632949. Nearly 500 members of the River Center, its partners (Olympic Peninsula Audubon Society and the Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe), many volunteers, and a very small staff have made the Dungeness River Audubon Center one of the most successful small Audubon nature centers in the country. To learn more about these organizations or to join the River Center, visit its website at www.dungenessrivercenter.org. Better yet, visit the River Center at 2151 W. Hendrickson Road, Sequim, Washington 98382. If you have questions, please call (360) 681-4076.

Sincerely,

No goods or services were provided in exchange for your contribution.

Your contributions to the Dungeness River Audubon Center, a 501©3 non-profit (Federal EIN 91-1632949), are fully tax-deductible.